A close-up, artistic photograph of a person's torso and hands. The person is holding a cassette tape, which is the central focus of the lower half of the image. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows, creating a moody atmosphere. The person's skin is a warm tone, and the background is dark and out of focus.

LOST IN LO-FI

ZINE ISSUE NO. 3

FEATURING

LENA JACKSON

A professional video camera is mounted on a black tripod, positioned in the foreground. The camera is black with a red stripe and has various cables attached to it. In the background, a person is visible, out of focus, wearing a white top. The scene is lit with purple and blue light, creating a moody atmosphere. The text "the lost videotape" is overlaid in the center of the image.

“the lost videotape”

LOST IN LO-FI
Zine Issue No. 3

Modeling by Lena Jackson

Photos shot on film with a Nikon F100 and Polaroid SLR 680
Video shot with a Quasar VHS camera and deck
Styling by Lena Jackson

Design and Photography by Editor
Copyright © 2022 Lost in Lo-Fi

LOFI.PHOTO